MAKING A LIST

Like most of the steps, when I first surrendered and come to A.A, I didn't have a clue about the depth I would have to delve into my past behaviors in order to free myself from all of the guilt and shame that resulted from them. I thought that all I would be talking about was my drinking habits. When faced with the 12 steps I had my own way of being selective about what part of the suggestions I would embrace and which suggestions I would simply dismiss as, ok for you but for me. I didn't problems were emotional matters. If I drinking things fine. It didn't me to realize what they were explaining to me about the wreckage of the past and how to relieve myself of the horrible memories that extended all the way back to my adolescent years. I was one of the fortunate ones that lost the obsession to drink from the very first day so that was never a problem for me. I had taken step one, I dismissed steps two and three as being ok for the religious folks but I could do without them. Steps four, five, eight and nine were the ones that I didn't want to face but by the time I was sober for about two years I finally let down my guard and did steps four and five. The relief I got from being fearless and thorough about those two steps gave me the desire and courage to proceed through steps six and seven and those steps will never be finished as they are basically about spiritual growth concerning my thoughts and actions.

If I could just stop drinking things would be just fine.....

not necessary think that my about mental, and spiritual could just stop would be just take long for

(Cont. on pg. 2)

Sometimes Quickly

Ebby T. was in deep chicken fat trouble! He had been arrested for running his car into the side of a Manchester, Vermont, lady's house, then had the nerve to ask her to bring him a coffee. She instead called the town constable. Following a second unknown incident, he was, for the third time, arrested for drunkenly shooting pigeons in his front yard with a loud double barreled shotgun. He faced six-months in either Winsor Prison or the Brattleboro Asylum.

Though not being very religious, Ebby prayed to God in doubtless desperation . . . to quote: ". . . as I had never prayed before." Ebby prayed these words: "I really mean this, I want to quit this drinking." Ebby then had a sudden release from drinking that lasted two years and seven months—enough time for him to carry his sobriety message to Bill Wilson. Ebby's release happened quickly

Clarence S., founder of Cleveland AA, was quoted to say: "Bill W. made the touchdown, but it was Ebby who handed him the ball."

Then came step eight and the need to identify those people that I had harmed in the past, and I would have to make amends to. Can they be serious? I don't think that a day ever went by during my drinking days that I didn't do something to harm someone. This list would be endless. With that thought in mind, I delayed doing it until I settled down and came up with an understanding that I could start my list and see where it would lead to. I began with the names of those people that I let down the most such as my first wife, my son, my siblings, my mother and my closest friends that were like family to me. Then I spiraled outward to the people I worked with or played with, such as golfing and fishing, etc. Then, as I started to remember all of those drinking buddies, bar tenders and girlfriends through all those years and I had to be realistic about it. To do this, I could spend the rest of my life chasing people down to apologize and that is when I had to step on the breaks. Thinking that I would need to chase down all of those ships in the night, was what held me back from doing it. What I finally did was first to be sure that I no longer did those regrettable deeds of yesterday so that I wasn't being hypocritical about it. Then I handled the ones that were renting room in the front of my brain box, then as I said, I spiraled outward and handled the ones that were closest to me, and as time went on I found the occasion when I would run into an old friend and if I had anything left undone, I would ask him, "Have you ever done something that you really regretted?" His answer is usually, "Hell yes, who hasn't? Then I say. Can we talk? This leveled the playing field. Who can fault a person who, like him, has made mistakes, but then corrected them, made restitution and lives an honest unselfish life? None of us are perfect. Don't be bogged down by over thinking this step, but on the other hand, be prepared to jump at the opportunity when it arises.

Rick R.

Bill W., while detoxing at Towns Hospital, was only about three days sober when went through what was to eventually become our Twelve Steps (p. 13). He tells us: "I ruthlessly faced my sins and became willing to have my new found Friend (God) take them away, root and branch." Of course, this was to become Step Seven four years later when he wrote the Big Book Manuscript. But, to point: Bill had immediate results from his request! His Wall Street dreams were cast aside as he made a bee-line to Calvary Mission to help other helpless drunken sots find sobriety. He never drank again! The miracle mentioned in Appendix II, "A personality change sufficient to bring about recovery from alcoholism" (p. 567), had indeed taken place in short order. Bill's release happened quickly!

Dr. Bob S., arriving home from a several days drunken spree, became willing to make amends to members of his medical staff and other professional associates, admitting that he was "secret drinker." This action, of course, put his reputation as a doctor in jeopardy, but he was willing to go to any lengths. Although his obsession to drink hung on for over two years, he never drank again. Dr. Bob's release happened quickly!

The timing of the above sequence of events allowed AA to start when it did. I sometimes hear around the tables: "Take your time to work the Twelve Steps." Aren't we lucky that these three founding members didn't wait to take the necessary action of surrender. I am happy to know that the Big Book has a time table. Please notice as how the Step Ten directions use the words: "at once," "immediately," and "quickly!" (p. 84)

Me llamo Diana y soy enferma alcohólica (14 años de edad)

Cuando llegué a Alcohólicos Anónimos, no podía ser una alcohólica.
 ¡Era imposible a la edad de 14 años!

Tomé mi primer trago cuando tenía seis años. Siendo la única niña de tres hijos, y la menor de edad, siempre podía arreglármelas para salirme con la mía. Ahora creo que era una alcohólica desde mi primer trago, ya que desde aquel momento, empecé a organizar mi vida según la pauta alcohólica. Vivía con temor del día, con mi odio y mis resentimientos, en un mundo de ensueño. Soñaba que tenía seis armarios llenos de ropa, y que todas las muchachas me envidiaban. En la vida real, era una gordita autoritaria y envidiosa de todos los demás. Odiaba a mi madre, porque solía darme azotes, y no me dejaba salir sin camisa, como los muchachos.

Nos trasladamos de aquella ciudad justo antes de que comenzara mi cuarto año de primaria. Me sentía muy sola. No tenía amigos, y no podía hacer amistades. Entonces, conocí a muchachas y muchachos que fumaban, bebían y tomaban drogas. Mis padres me suplicaban, discutían conmigo, me daban repetidas zurras. Pero, ¡iqué diablos! Eran ellos los que me hicieron nacer, los que nunca me quisieron, los que me hicieron pasar años de miseria. Decidí que había llegado la hora de desquitarme. Comencé a beber y a drogarme. Me fui llenando de lástima por mí misma. La bebida y la droga me aliviaban de todo. ¡Qué extraño! También se volvió muy importante la sexualidad, porque quería amor. ¡Montones de amor!

Creía que el problema radicaba en mi vida familiar, así que comencé a consultar con psiquiatras, consejeros, a asistir a servicios religiosos, lo hice todo. No funcionó y me entregué otra vez a la bebida. Siempre quería formar parte. Hacía cualquier cosa que la pandilla decidía hacer. Pero no me gustaba y quería escapar. No tuve que descender para tocar fondo, éste se levantó para chocar conmigo.

EL ÚNICO REQUISITO

En aquella época... cada grupo de A.A. tenía muchos reglamentos para hacerse miembro. Todos estaban aterrados de que algo o alguien hiciera zozobrar la embarcación... La lista completa medía más de una milla. Si todos los reglamentos hubieran estado en vigor en todas partes, a nadie le habría sido posible hacerse miembro de A.A....

— DOCE PASOS Y DOCE TRADICIONES, p. 135-6

Yo estoy agradecido de que la Tercera Tradición olamente requiere que tenga el deseo de dejar de beber.

Por años había estado rompiendo promesas. En la Comunidad no tenía que hacer promesas, no tenía que concentrarme. Solamente tenía que asistir a una reunión, en una condición nublada, para saber que estaba en casa. No tuve que jurar amor eterno. Aquí, gente desconocida me abrazó. "Todo mejorará", decían, y, "tú puedes lograrlo un día a la vez". Ellos dejaron de ser desconocidos para convertirse en amigos cariñosos.

Le pido a Dios que me ayude a llegar agradecido.

(Continúa)

Me puse en contacto con Alcohólicos Anónimos a través de una amiga metida en drogas. Ella sólo necesitaba tener algo que hacer, y no se quedó mucho tiempo. Yo, sí. Me gustaba el amor que recibía. Necesitaba este amor. Me quedé, borracha, deseando ser "una parte de", no "un aparte de."

Por fin, después de once meses comencé a trabajar en el programa. Las cosas empezaron a cambiar y fue maravilloso. La relación que tengo con mis parientes y con otras gentes es tremenda. [...] Mi padre sigue bebiendo, pero tengo que dejar que Dios haga su voluntad.

Tal vez un día Dios le encuentre también a él. Soy una alcohólica, y dentro de dos meses cumpliré dieciséis años.
