A Roadmap for Living

As I have navigated my way through the program of Alcoholics Anonymous, with only a limited formal education, but with a desire to learn all I can about this new life as it unfolds, it occurs to me that most of the things that the program teaches me are things I've been taught before. I learned the Ten Commandments and The Golden Rule in church. In the Boy Scouts, I learned that a scout Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean, and Reverent. In sports I learned about Teamwork and Disappointment. In Kindergarten I learned to play fair in the sand box. These things have been around long before me and even before A. A; So where did I go wrong? I, like most of us that come into the program, had a myriad of personal problems, and at first, I believed that those life issues including; Marital, Legal, Economic, Physical, etc. were the cause of my drinking the way I did. At that time, I wasn't sophisticated enough to understand the ins and outs of these things. I'm not sure that anyone can just drop what they have been conditioned to do, just because they quiet drinking. There must be more to it than that. If first we are fortunate enough to envision the wonderful life we can experience as the result of embracing this program to the fullest degree, we will first want to clear up the wreckage of the past. This we can do by thoroughly going through the steps in the spirit that they were intended, being careful not to hold back anything. As we approach Step Twelve we are introduced to the Saint Francis Prayer in the 12X12. Francis was not a Saint when he wrote this prayer, but he expresses that these virtues were the answers to his misguided thinking of the past. Notice that not one of his requests for help with things are of a selfish or material nature. I myself am not affiliated with any religious organization, but I am not threatened by religious doctrines and I agree with the statement on pg. 87 Big Book

STEP 11

"Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out."

QUIET MIND VIA PRAYER AND MEDITATION

Step 11: "Sought prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God, asking only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out." Someone said: "The only requirement for serenity is a desire to stop thinking." In early sobriety my raving alcoholic mind was not the least fond of that cliché. It would run full speed ahead all day long and often deep into the night. It would run so fast, and confusingly, that I feared losing my new job at an antique store. Sometimes I felt it necessary to forego lunch and talk with my newly found AA friends at a nearby recovery club (26th & Broadway, in Santa Monica California). Often, as if by magic, I would be overtaken by an inexplicable calmness. Somehow, once inside, I felt safe in the mist of that AA spirit we all know so well. Who needs lunch anyway!

But back to work during the afternoon my mind would resume its attack. What to do? I had learned a spiritual tool that I still use quite often today. I would pray: "Be still and know that I am God." Somehow, and I have never understood why, that simple statement had an immediate calming effect; albeit often short lived, it was welcome, indeed! The Big Book tells us that we have a "Great Reality deep down within us" (God). My concept of this is that God is telling my whirling mind to quiet down. Who knows? But it worked then and still does today—great tool!

The French philosopher, René Descartes, is often quoted: "I think, therefore I am." However, I am coming to believe that Bill Wilson's "Great Reality deep within" (p. 55) is like a great over-self that I can utilize through prayer and meditation to bring peace and serenity into my daily life. Actually, by living the Twelve Steps of AA, I have a certain control over my mind when it goes all cat-a-wampus.

Step Eleven tells how to find calmness, before going to bed at night, by having a reflective sort of meditate before going to bed at night and asking God for forgiveness (p. 86). How to prepare or day in the morning and how to remain spiritually fit (calm) throughout the day. Read Eleventh step promises on page 88.

NOVEMBER IS GRATITUDE MONTH!

" Our spiritual way of life is safe for future generations if, as a Society, we resist the temptation to receive money from the outside world. But this leaves us with the responsibility- one that every member ought to understand. We cannot skimp when the treasurer passes the hat. Our groups, our areas and A.A. as a whole will not function unless our services are sufficient and their bills paid".

(The Language of the Heart, p.221)

November is traditionally Gratitude Month in A.A. During the month of November a special collection is made during each meeting. This gives everyone a chance to make that extra contribution knowing that the money is used to directly support the many services that the Miami-Dade Intergroup office provides to both the Groups and to the many still suffering alcoholics in the Miami-Dade Area.

Your generosity to Miami-Dade Intergroup provides for:

- * Service to more than 500 meetings in the Miami-Dade Area.
- * A 24 hour hotline to answer calls from people seeking help for their alcoholism.
- * When & Where printed directory of meetings that is updated daily.
- * A mobile friendly website updated also on a daily basis accessed several thousand times a month.
- * Literature orders that can be picked up or delivered at our monthly business meeting per request.
- * Our newsletter "The Messenger" published monthly and distributed for free at our Monthly business meeting.
- * Mailing of flyers with event announcements on a weekly basis to keep the groups informs of other groups activities.

As you may know your contributions to Miami-Dade Intergroup are especially welcome; and are tax deductible.

Count your many blessings as the result of your sobriety. Find it in your heart to be as generous as you can with your contributions so that we may continue to help you and your Group and most importantly . . .

THE STILL SUFFERING ALCOHOLIC!

DO I STILL HAVE MY ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE ? THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION!

Lord, make me a channel for thy peace-that were there is hatred, I may bring love-that where there is wrong, I may bring the spirit of forgiveness that where there is discord, I may bring harmony-that where there is error, I may bring truth-that where there is doubt, I may bring faith
that where there is despair,
I may bring hope-that where there are shadows, I may bring light-that where there is sadness, I may bring joy.
Lord, grant that I may seek rather to comfort than to be comforted-to understand,
than to be understood-to
love, than to be loved.
For it is by self-forgetting that one finds. it is by forgiving that one is forgiven. It is by dying that one awakens to Eternal Life.
Amen

"Be quick to see where religious people are right. Make use of what they offer." I am sometimes honored when a newer member of the program asks for some guidance and I will usually suggest that he/she write out this prayer in long hand, paste it on his/her mirror and read it every day for a minimum of 30 days and I guarantee that it will influence their thinking for the rest of their life. It did for me. I don't know of a more practical thing to set the tone for a person's interactions with others. Thinking back on it, I always knew the right thing to do, but I wasn't always strong enough to do it. I dismissed these things, not realizing the pain that would result as I lost my direction in life. The Saint Prayer is one of the ways in which the program suggests that we revisit our early value system. It gives us some spiritual direction that deals with the change in our inner self and if we heal in that area, the material world will take care of itself. In life when I am faced with a sticky situation I have a choice whether to escalate it or back off and withdraw with love and understanding. After years of trying my best to live in the spirit of this prayer, it occurred to me that, as the result, I qualify in all those things I learned as a child, in church, in the Boy Scouts, in Kindergarten and in childhood sports. To me, The Prayer of Saint Francis is an All-Encompassing Spiritual roadmap.
