Step Six: Defects and Short Comings A lot of Credibility Leads to Integrity

Sometimes the wording used in The Big Book and in The Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions mean something different to individuals often based on how they evolved with respect to Religion, Agnosticism, Atheism and other developmental histories. This may be confusing to many of us, especially Step Six in the 12X12 as it talks of God removing these defects of character the way God removed the obsession to drink.

In simple terms I try to word the Step Six process in a way anyone can understand it and my goal is not to offend anyone by being over simplistic but just about all of our actions and behaviors stem from our thinking and if our thinking is of a fearful nature, we are bound to make bad decisions in an effort to defend ourselves. The defects we identify in the step four inventory, disclose in step five and address in step six, are biproducts of our fears and insecurities and are of a spiritual nature as in our inner self.

The shortcomings we address in step seven are of a material nature (actions and behaviors) that result from those fears and insecurities. If, in the program, we discover a defect of character and address it properly the short coming diminishes and becomes irrelevant. A simpler way I try to describe this process is as follows: Suppose you purchased a new car and drove off the lot and as you reached the first stop sign you hit the brakes, the car slowed down but did not stop as it should and drifted out into the intersection.

You then returned to the car lot and explained what happened, they checked it out and discovered that the wrong brakes were installed at the factory. They agreed to correct the mistake. This time when you drove away and approached the stop sign the car stopped as it was supposed to, and it also stopped at every other stop sign or red light. Once the defect was identified and corrected, the short coming went away. I look at defects as the unseen part of our makeup such as: thoughts, motives, fears, feelings, ego, conscience, and so on. I look at shortcomings as the results of those inner thoughts and feelings such as: gossip, lying, verbal abuse, cheating, theft, neglect, and so on. In step four we identified our defects of character (fear and Insecurity) and in step five we owned and exposed them.

In Step Six and Seven we start to replace our selfish and shameful thoughts and motives with unselfish habits and deeds. There's no need to overcomplicate the process. As we begin to stay on the unselfish side of the behavioral ledger, we begin to establish a new track record and if all our motives are of an unselfish spirit, we start to establish some credibility, which, in time, leads to integrity. If individuals employ the dynamics, I described in Step Six and Seven, he/she will be a different person, in Spirit, when they reach the ninth step and it will make it much easier to make amends backed up by a mountain of integrity.

"The Front Door of A.A."

Bill W. said: "Let us warmly support Intergroup"

Bill W. helped write an Intergroup pamphlet, which was published by the Intergroup Committee of New Jersey in March, 1949. On the back page of the pamphlet, Bill wrote:

"Every A.A. member wants every alcoholic in the world to have the chance that he has had. Every A.A. member wants unity for our movement. Every A.A. member wants the good opinion of medicine, religion and the general public. We know we must have these things or the new man may never get his chance."

"The Intergroup associations are the best insurance we can have that our life lines to the hundreds of thousands yet to come will never break or tangle. Let us always be generous. Let us warmly support Intergroup."

"Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character."

The steps of the program are numbered in order, for a reason and if a person is struggling with one of these steps it might be wise to backup and be sure that they didn't skimp on an earlier step or leave out something important. If an Alcoholic has a desire to live a happy and useful life, the steps of the program are a pathway to achieve that goal provided they stick with the plan. Not everything will go our way in the beginning but, if we persist, in time things will go exceptionally well. In the words of Preacher Roe: "Sometimes you eat the Bear, Sometimes the Bear eats you". I say, "Perseverance will always eat the Bear"!

THE JUDGE AND THE ALCOHOLIC

THIS story of an unpredictable alcoholic is based upon the trials and tribulations of a judge and a hopeless alcoholic. Tom was a well-known character among police circles. Every Saturday night he was picked up by the police and poured into jail for drunkenness. Every Monday morning he was given a stiff fine and a tongue lashing by the judge. It became a regular weekly habit with him and his case was always first on the docket. The judge really tried to help Tom. Nothing worked. Tom was allergic to Saturday nights and the poor fellow just couldn't stay sober. Finally, in desperation, the judge sentenced him to three months in prison in the hope of curing him of alcoholism. This time Tom stayed sober for three months. He had to. At the end of that time he was given his freedom.

The following Saturday night he was drunk again and on Monday morning he faced the judge for about the 100th time. The judge said, "Tom, I'm going to give you one more chance. I'm going to sentence you to my Sunday School class. I want you to be there every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock until further notice." For the first time in his drinking career Tom stayed sober on Saturday night. On Sunday morning he sat in the classroom among strangers, a picture of fear, remorse and self pity.

The lesson was on the subject of temperance, but the teacher's language was anything but temperate. He condemned all drunks as hopeless sinners and a disgrace to Christianity. Within an hour after the close of that service Tom got drunk and left town and the judge breathed a sigh of relief. He never heard from Tom again and he concluded that the poor fellow had drunk himself to death.

Alcohol is a treacherous enemy. It is no respecter of persons or their station in life. We never know who the next victim might be. Not long ago A.A. received a frantic call for help. It was from a man who had taken a terrific beating from alcohol. All his friends had deserted him. He was penniless and he had lost all hope for himself. As a last resort he decided to call on A.A. for help. The man who answered that call had a deep understanding of the alcoholic and his problem. He himself had once been a hopeless drunk and he had been shown the way back to sobriety by others who had understood his problem.

He had come to help the man who once tried to help him. The victim was none other than the former judge, and the man who made that 12th Step call was Tom, the former hopeless alcoholic.

"Each day that your Group participates in the work of our local A.A. services, whether through those who "Contribute their Time" or Group Contributions, or Sobriety Contributions, something wonderful happens in A.A. When a newcomer calls us and finds your meeting, it is indeed a miracle. Your contributions show that you care about the services we as a fellowship provide and continued hope for the newcomer that reaches out for help. Words cannot fully express the deep gratitude about the energy that your A.A. Group devotes into carrying the message of hope to the still suffering alcoholic."

FAITHFUL FIVER FRIENDS are fellow A.A. members who contribute $5.00 a month to the Intergroup Office as an act of gratitude. Their generosity help us to carry the message of A.A. to the still sick and suffering alcoholics throughout the year! LETTING GO AND LETTING GOD (Steps 6 & 7)

Directly after sharing Step Five with my sponsor, Carl, I realized that I desperately needed to become willing to allow God remove whatever defects and shortcomings harmful to my sobriety. I notice the Big Book tells us "then" not "later" to do Step Six! (P. 76) This could not be superficial, as many of my prayers had been, but must spring from my innermost self. I couldn't deny any of them because there they were written right out in front of me and my watchful sponsor, and of course God! Page 76 also suggests that if necessary: "We ask God to help us become willing."

However, that was not necessary for me in my state of fear and despair. We are told to do Step Seven "when ready," and I was certainly just that! Carl helped me with the prayer by asking me direct questions: Was I willing that God have all of me, good and bad? (Yes!). Was I now ready to allow God remove from me every single defect of character? (Yes!). Then, I was told to pray that God provide strength, as I go out from here, to do His bidding. (I did!) We had then completed Step Seven.

It was pointed out that the "Amen" at the end of the Step Seven Prayer had great significance—"Amen is generally uttered at the end of a prayer or hymn, meaning 'so be it.'" But there was no "Amen" at the ending of the Third Step Prayer, nor in the many Fourth step Prayers or the Fifth and Sixth Step Prayers! Why? Because we asked in Step Three to be relieved of the bondage of self—but we didn't even know what that bondage consisted of until we got to Step Seven. Only then, did we know what to ask for. Only then could we meaningfully say "Amen"

Then, as a grand finale, Carl burned all my paperwork up in front of my eyes and said: "Bob. There goes your past up in smoke. You have become a brand-new different person than you were yesterday! You can now begin to be rid of the guilt of your past life. But, if you take just one shot of whisky, you go right back where you started. I haven't yet!"

CONCEPT SIX

On behalf of A.A. as a whole, our General Service Conference has the principal responsibility for the maintenance of our world services, and it traditionally has the final decision respecting large matters of general policy and finance. But the Conference also recognizes that the chief initiative and the active responsibility in most of these matters should be exercised primarily by the Trustee members of the Conference when they act among themselves as the General Service Board of Alcoholics Anonymous.
