A Profound Sense of Gratitude How Fortunate We Are Today

Alcoholics Anonymous came into existence in 1935 when Bill and Bob started carrying their message to fortunate souls who, up to that point, had little hope of ever overcoming the disease of alcoholism. Prior to that, there were attempts to overcome the disease that came close but failed when they let other issues distract them from their primary purpose. I'm sure they had some, but not all, of the answers, but it did give our co-founders some of the answers as to "what not to do" when they established the steps and traditions. The book, Alcoholics Anonymous was published in 1939 after the first 100 alcoholics had maintained their sobriety. I was born in 1941, just two year after the Big Book was published. I was 28 years old when I came to the program which, at that time, was only in existence for 34 years. They say that Alcohol has been around for about 10 thousand years. How fortunate we are today, to be among the first, to have been chosen at this time to have a solution laid at our feet and for them to have the wisdom to not allow the first 164 pages of the Big Book to be edited or changed. When I talk of the word Gratitude, I ponder the vast amount of time (10 thousand years) that there was no answer to this problem and the hopelessness of those unfortunate souls before 1935. As a child I watched my parents and grandparents, and many of the elders in my life hopelessly suffer through the pains of this disease and they didn't even consider it a disease. On October 15, I will celebrate 50 years of sobriety and no one could be more grateful for all the benefits I have received as the results of clinging to this wonderful program and all the principles and values that have given me the tools that separated me from the delusional thinking of the past and showed me a path of recovery that has influenced so many people, starting with my immediate family and spiraling outwards to my relatives, my friends and coworkers and all my A.A. associates. If A.A. had come into existence and the Big Book would have been published just 30 years later than it was, I, most likely, would have been included in those unfortunate souls of the past that had no hope. I showed up at the doors of A.A. on Oct. 15, 1969 and as I see it, the Program had evolved just enough to be ready for this Grateful recipient and I will always be amazed by the timing of it all. In the 84 years of its existence, Alcoholics Anonymous has been the answer for millions and considering all the ten thousand years before the existence of A.A.; I believe we are very fortunate to be on the cutting edge of one of most important and beneficial developments in the history of mankind and to think that it all started when two common variety drunks got together and triggered the program of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Words cannot express the Gratitude I have for this program considering all the suffering that went on prior to 1935 when God saw fit to intervene and offer up a choice, and fortunately, Bill and Bob were listening and heard His loving voice. As I read the long form of the Twelve Traditions and all the pains it took when tackling all the points and counter points while formulating our program, I am amazed that all the pieces fell in place as they are today, and they seem to have gotten it right. I am extremely Grateful for those that came before me and handed me the wonderful life I live today.

ARE WE SUPPORTING OUR SUPPORT SYSTEM?

When was the last time your group made a contribution to your local Intergroup? Has it been a month, two months, six months? Or is your group one of those that has never made a contribution? Is this apathy or just lack of knowledge? I serve on the advisory board for our Intergroup Office and it seems no one is willing to make contributions anymore. It's becoming harder and harder to support our Intergroup Office and provide the services necessary for our AA community. As a member of the advisory board I knew it was part of my job to help find some answers to this problem. I started questioning the meetings I regularly attend, asking them point blank why they hadn't made a contribution. The answers I received astonished me. One group told me that the secretary had decided they wouldn't make a contribution because they needed the money for the group's social activities. Another secretary told a group member that he'd do what he damn well wanted with the money.

Then there were groups who said there just wasn't enough money left over to make contributions. Some secretaries admitted they had to kick in their own money to keep the group going. The hardest and saddest stories I heard were from groups that simply didn't know how and where to make a contribution. The basics of Intergroup information are published regularly in our local service newsletter. In addition, a pamphlet from GSO on the question of self-support is sent regularly in the secretary's packet. Either groups don't read the secretary's packet or they've never paid any attention to the information under the heading "Contributions." Unfortunately, we have many secretaries out there who are new in sobriety. They're not even out of the fog before someone pushes the job of secretary on them. New in sobriety, I received really clear-cut directions from my sponsor about how much time in sobriety was recommended before I made a commitment to certain service positions. When my time did arrive to serve, I was informed what I needed to do. I was told the coffee was to be made an hour before meeting time so there would be time for fellowship. All of the literature was to be displayed on a table, especially the Big Book.

Most importantly, I was told that regular contributions to support our Intergroup Office must be made. I realize that not all newcomers have sponsors. But the group has a responsibility to inform those secretaries who are newcomers. So how do we get the word passed around? Maybe those who care about Intergroup should start questioning the groups they attend about contributions. What's wrong with asking groups if they understand that they should make contributions on a regular basis, explaining what they need to do?

I can hear the responses already: It's not my job. Let someone else do it. I didn't get sober to spend my time running after a bunch of drunks and keeping them straight. The fact is, there are only so many of us in service. We need help, so we turn to other members. They need to remember that AA stands for unity, recovery, and service. Bill W. said if AA was to be destroyed, it would be from within. It would be sad if it was due to apathy.

THE SHOT HEARD AROUND THE AA WORLD

Ebby T's shotgun blast of late summer of 1934 will evermore resound throughout the fellowship of Alcoholics Anonymous. Ebby was thirty-eight years old, alone and nearly destitute, living in his family's summer home in Manchester, Vermont. He had inherited $150,000 only five years earlier, but that mostly evaporated following the stock market crash of 1929. While well-intoxicated one late evening during the late summer of 1934 he began shooting at pigeons on his roof. Not a good idea in such a prestigious neighborhood. (Robert Todd Lincoln, the President's son once lived across the street!) So Ebby was off to court for the third time; he faced six months confinement.

However, a friend from earlier days, Cebra G, heard of his plight and got Ebby off the hook—his father was the judge! However, Ebby was paroled to live under the tutorship of well-respected millionaire Rowland Hazard. Rowland convinced Ebby to become a resident at Calvary Mission in downtown Manhattan. There he learned that his old schoolmate, Bill Wilson was deep into alcoholic despair. His "kitchen table" visit (pp. 8-9) eventually led Bill to Towns Hospital for treatment; he never drank again! As you know, just five short months later, Bill carried his sobriety message to Dr. Bob S in Akron Ohio which soon afterward signaled the birth of AA.

That was all that was eighty-five years ago, so you may ask: "What's the point?" Well, this short AA history story illustrates that what I do in AA today may have long lasting effects. If I transmit the actual Big Book Twelve Step program of action to the next person, I believe the effect will result in sobriety for those who follow, one to the next. However, if I just make up what seems sort of appropriate, like elaborating on the steps from the clubhouse wall, the long-lasting results will be quite different. Sadly, through the years, I note such half-measure practices on the rise.

A pool player once stated: "I try to make all my shots count!" My hope and desire are that all my Twelve Step shots will be from the Big Book, so they will be heard through the years, but not from some superficial easier softer way. Ebby's kitchen table message to Bill was the Oxford Group message from which our steps were mainly derived. Page 77 tells us: "Our real purpose is to fit ourselves to be of maximum service to God and the people about us." You see what I mean.

CONCEPT ELEVEN

While the trustees hold final responsibility for A.A.'s world service administration, they should always have the assistance of the best possible standing committees, corporate service directors, executives, staffs and consultants. Therefore, the composition of these underlying committees and service boards, the personal qualifications of their members, the manner of their induction into service, the systems of their rotation, the way in which they are related to each other, the special rights and duties of our executives, staffs and consultants, together with a proper basis for the financial compensation of these special workers, will always be matters for serious care and concern.

Sobriety can be tough sometimes, which is why recovering alcoholics can always use a good laugh. In AA, members learn to not take themselves too seriously, to be happy, joyous and free. Luckily, sobriety can be pretty darn amusing.
