I Do not Understand Thermodynamics Where is All This Warmth Coming From?

I came to Alcoholics Anonymous (A.A.) bankrupt in every department. When I started to take the steps, my first big challenge was to find a power greater than myself that could solve my problems. What an order for a guy who they describe in step two in the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions (12&12) as the one who "had tried religion and found it wanting." I could see the examples of people around me that seemed to have it figured out and I became a nuisance trying to corner them to get them to explain to Me how they do it and they had the same trouble explaining it as I did. One day I confronted my friend, Jim, and asked him to let me in on the secret. Frustrated, He asked, "Do you want to drink right now"? My answer was "NO." He then asked me, "Did you want to drink a year ago"? And my answer was "YES. I could not go a day without it." Next, he asked me "What made the difference"? My answer was "I was influenced by the A.A. program" His next question was, "Do you have any Problem calling that God? WOW! What a concept.

I have never wanted a drink since I entered the program and the only answer, I could produce was the influence of A.A in my life. For a guy who could not conceive of a day without alcohol, to a guy that has never wanted a drink since, was all I needed to know about God. I wish I could tell you who or what God is, but I cannot. I can, however, tell you what God does for me, but I will get to that later. The second appendage in the Big Book, (Alcoholics Anonymous), Spiritual Experience, implies that there are many examples of spiritual experiences, and they come in different forms. They can be of the Burning Bush variety or a Psychic Change enough to bring about recovery from Alcoholism. Or, as I like to believe, my spiritual experience came in the form of "A Profound Change of Perception." When it occurred to me that all my thinking was flawed and that I was finally in an environment where I could, with the help of the group, start to follow simple unselfish guidelines that would restore my self-esteem and put me at peace with myself and others, I started this wonderful journey and I have never had it so good. These universal truths are common in the meaningful Philosophies of life, and I must seek them out if I want to heal.

Even though meetings, 12-step services and operations have now some virtual environment, expenses continue to accumulate during these times which underscores the importance of practicing the Seventh Tradition. Miami-Dade Intergroup still stocks literature, handles 12-step calls around the clock, and assists those with a desire to stop drinking. Your generous support is critical and greatly appreciated. Please keep your Intergroup Office in mind when you send your contributions, the office has a direct link for contributions on our website:

The Values I Learned as a Child An All-Encompassing Spiritual Roadmap

As I navigate my way through the program of Alcoholics Anonymous (A.A.), with only a limited education, but a desire to learn all I can about life as it unfolds, it occurs to me that most of the things that the program teaches me are things I've have been taught before. I learned the Ten Commandments in church. In the Boy Scouts, I learned that a scout is Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean, and Reverent. In sports I learned of Teamwork and of Disappointment. In kindergarten, I learned to play fair in the sand box, I also heard of the Golden Rule. These things have been around long before me and even before A.A; so, where did I go wrong? I, like most Alcoholics that come into the program, had a myriad of personal problems, and at first, I believed that those life issues including Marital, Legal, Economic, Physical, etc.; were the cause of my drinking the way I did. At that time, I was not experienced enough to understand the ins and outs of these things. I am not sure that anyone can just drop what they have been conditioned to do, just because they quit drinking. There must be more to it than that. If at times, we are fortunate enough to envision the wonderful life we can experience as the result of fully embracing this program, we will first, want to clear up the wreckage of the past. This we can do by thoroughly going through the steps in the spirit they were intended to be taken, being careful not to hold back anything. As we approach the twelfth step, we are introduced to the Saint Francis prayer in the 12&12. Francis was not a saint when he wrote this prayer, but he expresses that these virtues were the answer to all the misguided thinking of the past. Note that not one of his requests is for help with things that are of a selfish or material nature. I am not affiliated with any religious organization, but I am not threatened by religious doctrines, and I agree with the statement on pg. 87 BB. "Be quick to see where religious people are right. Make use of what they offer". I am sometimes honored when a newer member of the program asks for some guidance and I will usually suggest that he/she write out this prayer in long hand, paste it on his/her mirror and read it every day for a minimum of 30 days, and I guarantee that it will influence your thinking for the rest of your life. It did for me. I do not know of a more practical thing to set the tone for a person's interactions with others. Thinking back on it, I always knew the right thing to do, but was not always strong enough to do it. I dismissed these things, not realizing the pain that would result as I lost my direction in life. The Saint Francis prayer is one of the ways in which the program suggests we revisit our early value system. It gives us a spiritual direction that deals with the change in our inner self, which, if we heal in that area, the material world will take care of itself. When faced with a sticky situation, I have a choice whether to escalate it or to back off and withdraw with love and understanding. After years of trying my best to live in the spirit of this prayer, it occurred to me that, as the result, I qualify in all those things I learned as a child, in church, in the Boy Scouts, in Kindergarten, The Golden Rule, and in childhood sports. To me, it is an ALL-ENCOMPASSING SPIRITUAL roadmap.

In observance of

I Do not Understand Thermodynamics

I pray to God every day, even though I do not know who or what God is. My mind is not evolved enough to understand God and I am not sure that God hears my prayers, but, I HEAR MY PRAYERS and that, I believe, puts me in the best possible attitude I can have about the issue I pray for. My prayers are always the same. I pray for knowledge of his will for me and strength to carry it out. i.e., God, please show me what to do and please give me the strength to do it, I do not do well on my own. I often knew what to do but was not always strong enough to do what was right. Today I am stronger.

Who or what is God? I am not sure anyone can define God. As a friend of mine (Will) explained, "You do not have to understand Thermodynamics to enjoy the warmth of the sun", I do, however, know what God does. When I ask for guidance, I become a better receiver and I hear the answers that used to pass right over my head when I thought I had all the answers, and today, I thank God for an open mind.

THE MYSTERY OF MEDITATION

MORE than anything, I wanted to honestly take the Eleventh Step, not pretend I had taken the Eleventh Step. By that I mean I wanted to follow the sentence introducing Step Eleven in the Big Book, which states, "Step Eleven suggests prayer and meditation." It does not tell me, "Step Eleven suggests prayer and meditation, if you feel like it, and it's convenient and easy . . ."

Prayer, even when I am being honest, is simply prayer. It is my asking. Meditation for me seems to be a grownup version of prayer, the mature of offering of myself, without need or agenda, and the willingness to listen to an answer, even if the answer is silence. For this alcoholic, meditation is all about growing up; it is about new knowledge and new ideas.

Meditation for me is a venture into the unknown, a gamble with my pride, a true leap into powerlessness. "Being still in experienced and just having made conscious contact," as the Big Book says, I now found myself taking a huge risk and walking into the experience of attending a new Eleventh Step meditation meeting. No one chanted.

Everyone sat normally in a chair. It was a closed AA meeting for men and women. We read the Eleventh Step in the Big Book out loud. Suggestions about meditation from the essay about the Eleventh Step in the "Twelve and Twelve" were read. We meditated silently for 20 minutes. And then we shared our meditation experience. Just like our Step work, some of us were on Step One in meditation; some carried experience and confidence that they willingly shared. We were all equals. The same AA principles applied in our meditation meeting that apply in any other AA meeting: new ideas, new knowledge, willingness, patience, perseverance, discipline, honesty and open-mindedness. It is the same way I live my life in sobriety, the same way I work for conscious contact, the same way I work to fit myself to be of maximum service to my creator.

This alcoholic has work to do. Meditation with my fellow drunks is an experience unlike any other. I love taking a chance that even the smallest amount of change might allow my Higher Power access to my heart and mind. I love the risk of failing in meditation. I love the risk of succeeding in meditation. I love the risk of not knowing the difference. I love the risk of being lost and sober in completely new territory. The results are worth all those risks, and more. Now I can honestly say I am living the Eleventh Step as our founders felt we ought to.

UNDECIMA TRADICION

"Nuestra política de relaciones públicas se basa más bien en la atracción que en la promoción; necesitamos mantener siempre nuestro anonimato personal ante la prensa, la radio y el cine"

UNDECIMO CONCEPTO

"Aunque los Custodios tienen la responsabilidad final de la administración del servicio mundial de A.A. ellos siempre deberán recibir la asistencia de los mejores comités permanentes, de los directores de las corporaciones de servicios, de los ejecutivos, del personal de oficina y asesores, todos de la más alta competencia. Por consiguiente, la composición de estos Comités fundamentales y de las juntas de servicios, las cualidades personales de sus miembros, la forma de su incorporación, el servicio, los sistemas de rotación, la manera en que se relacionan unos con otros, los derechos específicos y las obligaciones de nuestros ejecutivos, empleados y consejeros, todo esto unido con una base correcta para la remuneración financiera de los trabajadores especiales, serán siempre asuntos de verdadero interés y cuidado."

UNDECIMO PASO

Mediante la oración y la meditación, tratamos de mejorar nuestro contacto consciente con Dios, según nuestro propio entendimiento de Él, y le pedimos tan sólo la capacidad para reconocer su voluntad y las fuerzas para cumplirla.

FREEDOM FROM GUILT

(Step Eleven provides the answer)

AA promise: "We will not regret the past nor wish to shut the door on it." (p. 83)

There exists a demon (Mental Obsession) lurking in my subconscious that wants me drunk! This demon hopes that I will misinterpret the above promise and begin to compulsively dwell on my many past mistakes, over and over. It hopes that the resulting guilt will render me so irritable, restless and discontented that I will march into the nearest bar.

Of course this great promise taken rightly does not encourage guilt at all. That we are not to "shut the door " on the past simply means that I need to realise my past mistakes so as not to repeat them.

But how, but not feel guilty?

I have heard said that self cannot rid self of self-guilt with self—akin to lifting oneself by their shoestrings. Obviously, I need a conscious contact with a power greater than my self!" Page 86 provides the answer: " After making our review, we ask God's forgiveness and inquire what corrective measures should be taken." (p. 86)

Asking for God's forgiveness is the easy part, but then comes the "corrective measures" part. To obtain release from my guilt I may need to make amends and perform unpleasant measures to prevent recurrence—whether I want to or not! I must always remember that to stay sober I must remain in a fit spiritual condition. (p. 85)

So, when past defects and shortcomings come to haunt me I can request help with the above prayer and try to stay busy in the 'nowness' of each day. AA service provides many such opportunities. Step Eleven solutions are based on truth, but the mental obsession is a lie. Happily, a lie cannot penetrate the truth anymore that darkness can penetrate light. The Eleventh Step directions continue to save me from marching back into that bar room door. Thank you, God!

Sobriety can be tough sometimes, which is why recovering alcoholics can always use a good laugh. In AA, members learn to not take themselves too seriously, to be happy, joyous and free. Luckily, sobriety can be pretty darn amusing.
